

Good bye - You really will not have anything just in his - the papers are responsible for too much wrong information.
Good bye - - Then she must go & look out & see if she made anything out of it.

I was provoked that she got in - but it was funny too.

I am just going on to Plain field to lunch with Mrs Beaman, Mrs Shaw.

Please give my love to Mrs Pfeiffer - I hope

me to know how she did (she)
They all (who did she mean) thought I was to come back here, & would I tell her anything, of my plans etc. - I said, certainly not - Then she - "Was her son in going to build a new house, will you tell me that?" I - Certainly not - She "I don't wish to have your ~~own~~ name in the papers I suppose - If course I can understand & we think you are splendid -"
I - I have nothing to say
